Etac Relax shower seat

Etac Relax is a smart and elegant shower seat. It is perfect when space is limited – folds nicely flat to the wall. You can choose just the version that fits your needs, Relax comes in twelve different variants. Easy to fit in any shower area.

Attention to the smallest detail

The Etac Relax shower seat has been developed with care and consideration for every little detail, in order to make your shower experience more enjoyable. Scandinavian minimalistic design gives you maximum comfort and a more stylish bathroom. Relax comes in two colours – white and lagoon green.

Easily adaptable to your needs

The Relax shower seat can easily be customised with several comfortable accessories, such as back support, foldable arm supports and supporting legs.

You'll sit comfortably thanks to the seat's soft ergonomic design. It's also nice to lean back against the heat reflective back support. You can feel secure with the soft non-slip arm supports and if you like, you can add supporting legs for added stability.

The foldable Etac Relax shower seat allows you to simply sit back and enjoy the feeling of well-being.
